

DISTRICT-LEVEL PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

In support of strengthening student academic achievement, the Oakes School District which receives Title I, Part A funds must jointly develop with, agree on with, and distribute to parents and family members of participating students a written District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy that contains information required by the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). The policy establishes the district's expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement and describes how the District will implement a number of specific parent and family engagement activities.

Definitions

This policy defines the following:

- Parent means a biological, adoptive, step or foster father or mother, or any other individual who stands in loco parentis to the student.
- Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:
  - a. Parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
  - b. Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
  - c. Parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
  - d. Other activities are carried out, such as those described in ESSA.
- Family/family members are adults living in a student's household who are related to the student and/or adult relatives living outside the student's household who, based on a school administrator's knowledge, play a direct and active role in the student's education (e.g., volunteer in school, attend school meetings).

District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy Requirements

Oakes School District agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined in law:

1. Put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the engagement of parents and family members in all of its school with Title I, Part A programs. These programs, activities, and procedures must be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents and family members of participating children.
2. Work with its schools to ensure that the required School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy meets the Title I, Part A requirements, and includes as a component, a school-parent compact.
3. Incorporate this District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy into its district plan.
4. Provide, to the extent practicable, full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, limited literacy, disabilities, of migratory students, who are economically disadvantaged, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background, including providing information and school reports required under

ESSA in an understandable and uniform format including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

5. If the district plan for Title I, Part A is not satisfactory to the parents of participating students, the District shall submit any parent comments with the plan when the District submits the plan to Department of Public Instruction.

Required District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy Components

The District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy includes a description of how the district may implement or accomplish each of the following components:

1. Joint Development

Oakes School District shall take the following actions to involve parents and family members in jointly developing its district plan, and in the development and review of support and improvement plans.

Parents are included in the strategic planning process of the District through public forums and membership on the strategic planning committee. Feedback is requested via survey annually from stakeholders on the progress of the strategic plan.

2. Annual Evaluation

Oakes School District shall take the following actions to conduct, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy in improving the academic quality of its Title I, Part A schools. The evaluation must include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in activities (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The evaluation must also include identifying the needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with school personnel and teachers and strategies to support successful school and family interactions. The District may use the findings of the evaluation about its District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, its District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy.

The strategic plan includes the continuous improvement plan. Evaluation is built into the strategic plan with a monitoring document to insure the plan is progressing. Additionally, the strategic planning review committee includes parents and representatives from stakeholder groups.

3. Coordination of Services

Oakes School District shall, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities with other relevant Federal, State, and local laws and programs that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children by:
